

MSc Environmental Studies and Resources Management
MSc Climate Science and Policy
Department of Energy and Environment
TERI School of Advanced Studies

Study tour to Goa
29th February to 5th March, 2020

Learning objectives:

1. To explore varied facets of Goa and the surrounding areas with respect to its landscape and history.
2. To explore the various sustainability aspects in Goa (including, waste, water, air quality, energy and biodiversity management)
3. To understand man-environment relationship wrt access to natural resources and livelihood opportunities and climate change in the region.

Methodology:

Field based: transect walk, observation, interaction with officials/ experts, photo documentation

Day I: 29th March Delhi to Goa
Day2: 1st March Arrive in Goa
Day3: 2nd March Forenoon: Visit to Dudhsagar falls (GIS Ground truthing exercise) Afternoon: Visit to historical site
Day4: 3rd March Full day: Visit to TERI Educational Hub Evening: Leisure
Day5: 4th March Forenoon: Community visit (Vulnerability Assessment and Rapid Environmental Assessment), Visit to Saligao Waste management facility Afternoon: Interaction with the Commissioner of Goa. Evening: Group 1 Return to New Delhi
Day6: 5th March Evening: Group 2 Return to New Delhi

Co-ordinators

Faculty: Dr. Akash Sondhi
Administration: Ms Gauri Rana

Student Coordinators

Kishalay Das and
Vedansh Jain and Shruti Bahukhandi

List of students for the Bhopal study tour

Sr No	First Name	Registration No
------------------	-------------------	------------------------