Discussion Points

- 1) The Convener updated Council Members about the activities IIC undertook during the last quarter, including MHRD IIC requirements. He further informed about the newly constituted and expanded Council and its first meeting
- 2) Council Members expressed their views to encourage TSAS students towards innovative related activities, and suggested the following -
 - a. Invigorate student members of the Council to share their inputs on the activities which needs to be undertaken
 - b. Organize competition among students to develop innovative ideas on relevant themes with suitable recognition / reward.
 - c. Incorporate innovation related work in research/ project / internship. The students may be permitted to expand on their innovative related work (point-b above) as part of their major project work
 - d. Offer an open elective subject involving innovation related work. This can be initiated as a workshop, eventually converting it into an open elective
- 3) Council Members suggested to include PhD scholars in the Innovation Council, wherein, they can showcase their research work, besides providing guidance to other students
- 4) Council Members opined to approach Internal Grants Committee, Manjunath Foundation and other grant facilities available within TSAS for raising funds to support innovation related activities in the Campus. Further, it was suggested to approach corporate as well as entities like Social Alpha to support innovative related activities in the Campus
- 5) The Convener requested each Member to regularly update Council Secretariat on innovative related work being carried out in their respective programmes, which would be helpful for report formulation
- 6) The Council decided to undertake the following activities in the next quarter -
 - a. Organize a competition amongst students (with due recognition)

- b. Organize a workshop/ webinar involving start-up / senior industry professional on a theme related to sustainable development
- c. Solicit inputs from external members of the Council on the proposed IIC activities in the Campus
