

Course Title: Environment and Society
Course code:	No. of credits: 2	L-T-P: 30-0-0	Learning hours: 30
Pre-requisite course code and title (if any): None
Department: Natural and Applied Sciences
Course coordinator:		Course instructor:
Contact details:
Course type: Core		Course offered in: Semester 1
Course Description The course is designed to understand the association between the environment and society to understand the role played by society and its interface over the environment. It focuses on the interplay between humans and their environment including complex issues such as climate change, population growth, pollution, and management of natural resources faced by our modern society. Further, the course aims to understand community participation towards sustainable practices and environmental protection.
Course objectives The course aims to build the following basic understanding among students: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To develop critical thinking on global environmental challenges, conflicts between development and environment, and environmental impacts on society. • To understand the importance of community participation for sustainable practices and environmental protection. 			