Course description Macroeconomics—the study of the dynamics of economic aggregates—is one of the foundational areas of economics. Attempts to understand macroeconomic phenomena have been one of the major drivers of modern economic theory and the fruits of this study have helped to improve economic policy. This course aims to introduce students with the major schools of macroeconomic thought with the objective to expose them to different debates in macroeconomic theory.
Course objectives <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Acquaint students to the different schools of macroeconomic thought. 2. Exposing students to the debates on macroeconomic theories and policy making at different points in time.
